Museum Weekly Report For Week Ending August 21, 2020

With approval of the FY2021 budget and a restructuring of the relationship between the non-profit Friends of the Greenbelt Museum (FOGM) and the City, the Museum will now start producing a weekly report detailing our activities to bring the Museum in line with other City departments. Please provide feedback to David Moran or myself, Megan Searing Young, Museum Director, myoung@greenbeltmd.gov. Thank you!

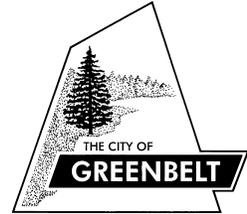

Museum Activities

- Rollout of marketing for the Museum's virtual Retro Town Fair, staff submitted article to News Review, updated website, posted to Museum Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram accounts
- Wrote and sent email newsletter to the Museum's email list (approximately 300 subscribers)
- Phone call with GHI staff regarding review of and scheduling for GHI Home Improvement Program work to be done on 10A and 10B Crescent
- Coordinated with architect of 10A Education and Visitor Center project, geotechnical engineering firm, and GHI to complete soil borings on site at 10A
- Researched and wrote #MuseumFromHome blog entry on the Rossville Rural Development, the early plan for housing for people of color at the Greenbelt site which was not built. The post has had over 478 views, significantly more than other posts staff have written
- Collected 1975 scrapbook from the Recreation Department along with other archival materials. If your department has photographs, historic documents, that you no longer want/need, please contact us at the Museum.
- With FOGM Board president, finalized contract with new CRM (customer relationship management) software for FOGM to better manage membership records
- Weekly meeting with Assistant City Manager
- Continuing to restructure museum website to reflect clarification of city and FOGM roles
- Continuing to research best practices regarding reopening plans/phases. The very limited space in the Museum house makes reopening difficult, but we are exploring whether small, socially distanced walking tours might be offered instead.
- Ongoing research for #MuseumFromHome blog entries
- Completed weekly visit and inspection of both 10A and 10B Crescent
