

art social

Book your own

Clay Play!

Make and bring home a functional piece of pottery!

Hand-building This two meeting experience will let you try your hand at creating a functional piece of ceramic art at the first meeting and glaze it at the second meeting.-3 hours (2 meetings, 1 1/2 hours each)

All clay and glazes provided. This is a two-week event! When you call, be prepared to schedule two meetings, each 1.5 hours, at least a week apart. Feel free to bring the whole family! All ages are welcome.

Instructor: Judy Goldberg-Strassler

Cost: 5-8 participants: $48 each 9-12 participants: $32 each

Paint Night!

Come with any level of painting experience...

Choose:

Paint-Along All participants paint together with step by step demonstrated instructions. -2 hours

Or

Free-Paint Participants can choose from instruction booklets to guide them through a painting, paint something they prepare, or paint whatever comes into their head...with instruction and guidance as needed, of course. -2 hours

Canvas, paint, brushes provided. Individuals who will not be painting are welcome to come at no cost, or consider "buddy painting" with a friend or child (this is appropriate for kids as well) and only pay for one canvas.

Instructors: Amanda Larsen or Racquel Keller

Cost: 5-9 canvases: $30 each 10-14 canvases: $22 each 15-20 canvases: $19 each

Soap it up!

Join us for a night of melt and pour soap crafting with friends and family!

Soap making Participants will make their own loaf of soap based on a pre-chosen theme -2.5 hours

All materials provided. Projects available include an "under the sea" theme, a gemstone theme, and a popsicle and cupcake theme. Keep in mind that this process involves the use of very hot liquid (200°).

Your group should have one accompanying adult per child under 12.

Instructor: Natalie Aresta-Katz

Cost: 9-14 participants: $25 each 15-20 participants: $17 each 21-25 participants: $15 each