City Manager's Report Week April 29, 2016

1. I am pleased to announce that Jim Sterling has been appointed Public Works Director. Jim has done an outstanding job as Acting Director over the past 18 months and prior to that as Assistant Public Works Director.
2. Included in Council's packet is a response to Brian Almquist's petition about the Animal Shelter calling itself "no-kill." It explains that the County data provided by Mr. Almquist does not change the shelter's status as a "no-kill for convenience" facility. A copy will be forwarded to Mr. Almquist and the News Review early next week.
3. Drafted new MOU for GATE and studio space. Expect to have version for Council review next week.
4. Worked with City Treasurer on determining impact of recent notice of large abatements of property taxes.
5. Reviewed plans for forebay dredging with Assistant Planning Director.
6. Worked on arrangements for NLC Small Cities conference.
7. Assistant City Manager
  - a. Worked on updating the City's participation in the Bladensburg Municipal Collaboration which provides weatherization & efficiency upgrades to income eligible homeowners.
  - b. Drafted CRAB Minutes and Reports.
8. Finance Department
  - a. Researched large abatement for Franklin Park.
  - b. Attended Spring 2016 meeting for MD-GFOA.
  - c. Completed Maryland Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request in regard to invoices and activities at the animal control facility.
9. Information Technology
  - a. Resolved network communication issues at GAFC and SHL Rec
  - b. Prepared replacement server for Dossier and Planning
  - c. Attended New World Systems users conference
10. Held senior staff meeting.
11. Prepared for Regular Meeting and Public Hearing on Proposed Budget on April 25, and work sessions on April 27, May 2 and 4.

CITY NOTES

Greenbelt CARES

Week Ending April 29

On Tuesday, Rosalind Ceasar, ACE Staff Liaison, attended the Advisory Committee on Education (ACE) regular meeting. Among the topics discussed, was planning for the student awards which are coming up in May.

Sharon Johnson, Gail Case Manager, and Joyce Kolenky, GRH Service Coordinator, attended the Prince George's County Service Coordinator quarterly meeting. Sharon spoke to the group about the City serving as the North County representative for the County's Dementia Friendly America Initiative.

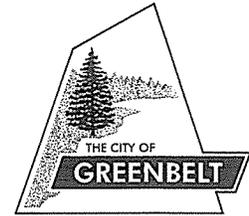

Liz Park, attending as a member of the State Advisory Group on Juvenile Justice, attended the Coalition for Juvenile Justice 2016 Annual Conference in Washington, D.C. She attended workshops on youth homelessness, girl's experiences in detention, and one on diversion opportunities through local leadership, moderated by staff from the National League of Cities.

Darren Stephenson facilitated a Community Support Group at the Springhill Lake Recreation Center, following the tragic event involving a shooting. In attendance were 3 representatives from Franklin Park at Greenbelt Station Apartments, Frank Jones, Recreation Department and 8 residents from Franklin Park. The groups discussed the recent shooting, and past and present issues regarding living conditions in Franklin Park. Ms. Knight, Director of Residential Services, gave a preview and overview of Franklin Park's mission and ideas in moving forward in improving relations with its residents. Several residents shared some of their good and unpleasant experiences in Franklin Park. The dialogue and mood was conducive and supportive in this meeting. Both Franklin Park staff and the residents agreed to meet on another date to further discuss their concern.
