CITY NOTES

Greenbelt CARES

Week Ending October 1

Hi, my name is Bessy Turcios currently a senior at the University of Maryland, School of Public Health, pursuing a Bachelor's of Science in Community Health. I am the Greenbelt Assistance in Living Program (GAIL) intern for the fall 2015 semester. I hope to gain lots of experience and knowledge from this internship to relate it to the field I plan to go into. I was born and raised in the state of Maryland and I love everything about it. I love working with people and communities. It makes me happy being involved and knowing people do care to listen and be heard. I'm here to support, help serve you, and help you with healthier lifestyle choices, so you can be a better you. I hope to gain experience and skills working with target populations and how to provide services and resources to improve their quality of life. My future goals include working with underserved communities to increase their quality of life and continue my education to become a Physician's Assistant.

Judye Hering attended the First Look Volunteer Fair on campus at the University of Maryland on Wednesday, September 16. The purpose of the Fair was to introduce college students to service learning and volunteer opportunities. Judye met with over 150 students and enrolled 15 students as volunteer tutors.

Liz Park attended a Juvenile Justice State Advisory Group meeting on Monday, September 21. The group heard a presentation from the University of Baltimore's, Baltimore City Truancy Court Program. This program is the only one in the Country operated by a Law School.

Liz Park and the other Prince George's County YSB Directors met with the Department of Family Services Program monitor to review the FY16 contract and Scope of Service. The monitor reported being very pleased with the work of all 5 YSBs in the County.

CARES hosted the MAYSB Clinical Supervisor's Meeting on Thursday, September 17.

On September 24, a new group entitled "Want to talk?" started for G.A.I.L. clients who were invited for seven sessions at the Municipal Building's library meeting on Thursdays from 2 pm to 3 pm. It will include a psycho-educational component of Cognitive Reframing and is co-led by Tom Patota, LCSW-C, LICSW and Cindy Lynkew, graduate MSW candidate of the University of New England.

Susan Harvey is a licensed graduate professional counselor with a M.S. in Pastoral Counseling from Loyola University Maryland. She is finalizing certification with Green Cross International as a certified field traumatologist. She joins Greenbelt CARES as a Crisis Intervention Counselor.

My name is Angela Tabey. I am a Masters Social Work (MSW) intern from the University of Maryland Baltimore and will be interning with CARES for the 2015/2016 academic school year.

Christal Batey, Community Resource Advocate, attended the Maryland Commission on Aging Commission Meeting at Chesapeake College on Thursday, September 24. This meeting brought together Commissioners from every county in the State of Maryland. Christal Batey is the current chairperson of the Prince George's County Commission on Aging.

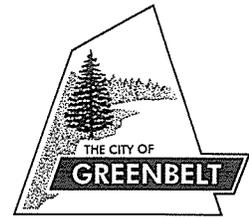

My name is Irina Christin, a counseling intern with Greenbelt CARES Youth and Family Services Bureau. I am currently involved as a graduate student in the MS in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program with Walden University.

Rosalind Ceasar, staff liaison, attended the ACE regular meeting on September 22. Issues discussed were the upcoming PTA President's meeting and approval for a reading club at Greenbelt Middle School.

The Dispute Resolution and Managing Anger group began on September 28. The group is run by CARES Interns Stephanie Waters and Angela Tabey and has thirteen participants. The group is off to a great start discussing anger histories and alternative ways to handle anger for better future outcomes!

The GAIL program has begun its "Cans, Cash and Cards" Thanksgiving food drive. Donations are welcome NOW until November 18, 2015. Cash donations, grocery gift cards and non-perishable canned or boxed foods are welcome.
