City Manager's Report Week Ending January 17, 2020

1. Attached please find a confidential document.
2. Attached is the November 2019 Police Department Statistical Report.
3. In response to the petition regarding session breaks during volunteer-led senior swimming classes, staff research identified that: the classes were a County program led by volunteers, not a City program; unknown to the City, the County discontinued the program years ago- yet the City continued to promote and make space for the defunct County program; with this discovery, the City will take over the program, which could include hiring the volunteer instructors. The attached memo from Mr. Greg Varda further outlines the findings and rationale for breaks between City class sessions (for example, a break between Spring and Summer Sessions to support scheduled facility maintenance, staff rest or training, as well as to allow other possible participants to register, etc.).
4. Planning staff met with Lutheran Church representatives as the congregation continues to explore engineering and site planning for a potential housing development.
5. Along with staff from multiple departments (Finance, Planning, and Administration) met with Quantum Company ownership regarding Beltway Plaza.
6. Ms. Liggins has reported that TGI Fridays and Gus' Fried Chicken have new managers. Outreach will take place.
7. In response to several flag questions, the American flag at the Community Center was taken down because the hoisting cord snapped during a recent storm. It will be repaired and the flag will be replaced. The City flag at the Aquatic & Fitness Center which is worn will also be replaced.
8. In follow-up to a question regarding the status of Roosevelt Center cameras, Information Technology Staff confirmed that upgrades were completed.
9. In follow-up regarding a question regarding the Roosevelt Center bench to be located near the Step Club, planning staff confirmed that needed information has not been received from the Step Club.
10. Met with and/or corresponded with staff and City Solicitor regarding legal, personnel, and operational matters.

Greg,

Thank you for the update. It may be helpful to have someone from GAIL and/or GAIL materials available in the event that someone wants to talk about their needs. I recall the email to Council stated that an individual may become depressed or encounter other issue during the class breaks.

Thanks,
Nicole

Subject: Senior Swim Class Update

Nicole and David,

The Senior Swim class offered at the Greenbelt Aquatic and Fitness Center on Mondays from 11:15 to 12pm has been in existences for more than 25 years. The class has been part of the Prince George's County-Department of Aging. The instructors are volunteers through PGC-Department of Aging. For many years Marsh Voight has instructed the class and Marsha Gielen would substitute in her absence.

After reaching out to the PGC-Department of Aging about recent developments with class participants, we were advised that the PGC-Department of Aging discontinued the Senior Swim class at the GAFC five years ago. We were not informed of the change in class status. However, over the last five years the class was scheduled under the assumption that the PGC-Department of Aging was the provider. It is thought that the reason why the class was dropped is the volunteer instructors did not record their hours with the PGC-Department of Aging for some time period. Therefore, the PGC-Department of Aging assumed the class was no longer operating.

Moving forward, the senior swim class will now fall under the Recreation Department's management. The instructors will be hired as part-time non-classified employees. Nothing else will change with the class; fees, day and time will all remain the same. Staff is looking into scheduling another session during the week. It will depend on instructor availability and the existing class schedule.

As for breaks in classes, it has been a long standing practice of the City to cancel all classes on National Holidays and certain religious holidays. This allows for recreation facilities to be open to the general public for drop-in use. This practice has proven to be popular with the public.

We typically take seasonal breaks for many reasons:

1. It give us a buffer between sessions to make up any classes that were cancelled due to weather, instructor illness or holidays.
2. Routine maintenance or larger projects can be scheduled during seasonal breaks.
3. Allows new participants to register.
4. Instructors are able to take a break or schedule personal vacations during time off.

Before the next scheduled class I will personally talk to the participants to explain the process and give the participants a chance to ask any questions. Hopefully we will be able to offer another class session during the week.

Let me know if you have any question,

Greg

Stephen Parks, Supervisor
Greenbelt Aquatic & Fitness Center
Greenbelt, MD

January 7, 2020

Dear Mr. Parks,
Thank you for the wonderful successes of the Greenbelt Aquatic & Fitness Center. For years, you have been instilling regular water exercise for seniors !!!! Thank you very much.

Also, hope you realize that this last December the 2-week gap without classes worked against your successes:

Senior regularity of exercise is broken;

Seniors, as others, are susceptible to depression during holidays when they do not maintain/increase stimulating holiday exercise;

Seniors who are low income, do not have means to use the pool at all for the 2-week gap (as they are not aware of or likely to apply for financial assistance).

In 2020 please find a way in to continue the Senior Swim sessions as they have occurred over the years without gaps. Our volunteer teachers have never been paid for our classes. They are completely volunteer and in the past have kept the weekly class going without gaps. We want the teachers to be allowed to encourage us (not discourage us) to participate all weeks of the year, including January 20 and February 17 (days that the Activity Guide says "no class").

Please support us, not confusing us or suggesting that we stay home and not go to the pool. Non-support goes against the commitment of our good volunteer non-paid teachers and against our own commitment of persistent exercise. It is not the wonderful Greenbelt way!

Thank you for your compassionate consideration.

Sincerely, Senior Swim students (signatures available): Judy Lucas, Evelyn Haggerty, Juanita M. Gesin, Gail Drake, Carol Nezzo, Kiannah Mahlooji, Judy Wolfe, and others

PS Please add a second Senior Swim session per week - perhaps on Fridays. Thank you.

Greenbelt CARES

Week Ending January 17

The CARES Director and three counselors attended, "Angst: Treating Anxiety in Youth and their Families," on Friday, December 12, 2019. Attendees viewed the film Angst and heard from leading experts on how to help teens and their families with anxiety issues.

Judye Hering was happy to introduce Cassidy Pham to the ESOL program on Tuesday, January 7. Cassidy participated in the intern for a day program from the University of Maryland. The purpose of the program is to have undergraduate students experience potential employment in their field of study and have an opportunity to ask questions of the supervisor of each program. Cassidy's family came from Vietnam and the ESOL program was a perfect fit for her.

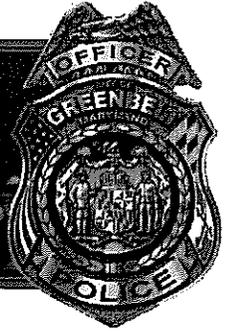

Judye Hering began the winter GED course on Monday, January 6. Students study in preparation for taking the GED test. Eight students enrolled in the course.

Judye Hering met with Amy Engineer on Monday, January 6, 2020. The purpose of the meeting was to partner with Terps for Change, an additional volunteer site for University of Maryland students who have expressed an interest in the ESOL Classes for Adults and GED programs that do not involve children. The Terps for Change program requires that 10-12 volunteers volunteer for 2 hrs for 8 weeks in the fall and spring (ideally these volunteers come as one large group but they could come in two groups of 6).

Judye Hering is happy to welcome Sandra Granados, student intern, to the Vocational/Educational Program. Sandra is a graduating senior from the University of Maryland, studying Family Science.

Judye Hering met with Nageen Fadae on Wednesday, January 15, 2020. Nageen participated in the Intern for a Day program from the University of Maryland. The purpose of the program is to introduce college students to realistic employment opportunities in their field of study. It also gives students a chance to ask questions and discuss job tasks and responsibilities with employers and fellow employees.

Judye Hering also met with Ciara Ware on Wednesday, January 15, 2020, to discuss an internship for the winter semester in the Vocational/Educational program. Ciara is a graduating senior, majoring in Family Studies, at the University of Maryland.
