CITY NOTES

Greenbelt CARES

Week Ending June 12

The GAIL program hosted an Emergency Diaper Supply at the Greenbelt Community Center on June 1 with 36 families participating. Families were given diapers and wipes for each child. They presented photo identification, birth certificate for each child they requested diapers for and proof of Greenbelt or Prince George's County residency. The GAIL program plans on hosting their next event on Monday, July 13, from 9 am - 4 pm.

Judye Hering participated in a presentation for Google Classroom. Google Classroom has now been uploaded and will be used in teaching GED and ESOL.

Yetta Lyle, Crisis Intervention Counselor, attending the following trainings: WorkPlace Violence, Crisis Management and An Overview of Intimate Partner Violence.

Flora Li, Service Coordinator, attended a webinar, "Preparing for Loss: Death, Dying, and Grieving," hosted by the American Society on Aging. This webinar provided information on end-of-life planning, documentation, and how to prepare older adults and their families for conversations about death, dying and grieving.
