RE: Summer Policy on Non-Resident Use of the Greenbelt Aquatic & Fitness Center on weekends and holidays

On Monday, May 22, 2000 the CITY COUNCIL made an amendment to the Summer Weekend Admission policy stating that Non-Resident admissions on weekends and holidays during the summer (Memorial Day Weekend to Labor Day) are limited to Greenbelt Aquatic & Fitness Center Pass-Holders and the guests (both resident and non-resident) of Pass-Holders or Residents of the City of Greenbelt.

The list of addresses (on the reverse of this page) that are considered Greenbelt residents was compiled from the City's listing of voting locations found on the web at:

<http://www.greenbeltmd.gov/index.aspx?NID=175>

The City of Greenbelt's Planning and Community Development office has verified with the State Property Tax Database which of these street addresses are considered valid Greenbelt residences. There are several residential complexes which have a Greenbelt address, but the owners of the facilities do not pay City taxes and are therefore not considered Greenbelt residents. These complexes include The Hanover, Chelsea Woods, and The Gates at Cipriano.
